OPINION OF DAY

» New ideas presented for finding new employer contacts - think outside of the box!

» How to build new relationships with employers

» Really enjoyed the ~~process~~ part about learning your applicant and trying to match them to the right company.

» This was my first career/job development workshop in my new career and really enjoyed how small and interactive it was.

OPINION OF DAY

Great training! I thought that I was resourceful but I was given some great suggestions for looking at finding employers in many alternate ways. I plan to utilize many of the suggestions to help my Clients to be self-sufficient and to obtain long-term employment that matches the client.
